What is an EntrePass in Singapore?

The EntrePass in Singapore, also known as the Singapore Entrepreneur Pass, is a specialised work pass specially designed for foreign entrepreneurs or business owners who are keen on launching and driving businesses within Singapore and globally. This work pass targets scalable and innovative businesses that can contribute significantly to the Singapore's economy. It also targets entrepreneurs, innovators, business owners, and investors who aspire to use Singapore as a strategic base for accessing the ASEAN markets and wider Asian region.

Features of the EntrePass Singapore

1. No minimum capital investment requirements: You meet on of the innovative criteria prescribed by the MOM which capital investment is not required.
2. No Salary Requirement: Unlike Employment Pass, you are not required to be paid a monthly salary to meet the eligiblity criteria.
3. Visa Validity: The Entrepreneur Pass is issued for 1 year and can be renewed for another 1 year; thereafter, you can renew for 2 years.
4. Worker's Levy: Exempted from paying any worker's levy or quota.
5. Dependnant's Pass Eligibility: You can bring your immediate family and parents (if the required business milestones).

Visit one-visa.com for more details.